See the article on page 2 for more details.

Harnett County Literacy has a new logo designed by our volunteer Danny Blackman. Thanks Danny!!!!

Our next Board meeting is Thursday, September 13, 2012 at 12:15PM at Triangle South Enterprise Center. Room 106. Please plan to attend! We welcome your participation and input in Harnett County Literacy!

We recently setup at Campbell University on August 20 for Campbell University's Street Fair and got 18 students who are interested in volunteering. Great Job! Thanks to Claudia Farr and Frankie Moody for working our booth!

I want to encourage everyone to send in your recipes for our new cookbook. We would like to have all of our tutors, students, and volunteers to include recipes in the book. This is a great opportunity for your student to easily support the agency. I am looking forward to cooking and enjoying some of your recipes!!

Invest your time and share your contacts to help us reach more students and volunteers. Let us know about your neighborhood, church, or work-related groups. Chances are you are surrounded by potential tutors and students.

We are always looking for volunteers for an events committee or canvassing. Give us a call, drop us an email, visit us on Facebook and find out more ways to get involved.

Make a donation today, you will be investing in our community. All of your Harnett County Literacy donations stay in this community.

Executive Director

VOLUNTEER NEWS

The HCL Cookbook Entry Deadline is August 31, 2012

This is a simple opportunity to support HCL. We are collecting recipes from volunteers, students, and the community for inclusion in our newly created Harnett County Cookbook. We are a diverse group and expect to have an appealing selection of recipes. This diversity of recipes is very important as it will make our cookbook a standout from all the others on the market. All you need to do is send us at least two of your favorite recipes to be included in the cookbook. This can be a meaningful learning project for both tutors and students in all of our tutoring matches. Community members can share their home-cooked specialties as well. If we all pitch in, this book will be a success and provide us with much needed financial support.

You can send your recipes by email to camjfarr@msn.com, by postal service to our agency address or drop them off at the HCL office. The entries can be typed or neatly handwritten. Each entry must include the name of the recipe, a list of ingredients with portion sizes, instructions and the person's name and phone number (in case we have questions when entering the recipe). Questions? Please call the office. Claudia Farr, Project Chair

If you have any newsletter teams to share, please contact the HCL office.

AGENCY FUNDRAISING NEWS

Doughnut Fundraiser a Success!

Our doughnut sale which was held on August 4th was a success! We had three teams selling: Frankie Moody and Tresa Wheeler were at Belk in Dunn; Sharon Syck, Josephine Gibbs, and Sharon's daughter, Mary were at Dollar Tree in Dunn; Betty Currin, Barbara Crowley, and Diane Lennon were at Kerr Drugs in Benson. Thanks to each of you for your hard work in planning the event and for enduring the August heat to make the sales. Our profit from the sale of doughnuts was $322. We had $220 in donations, as well, which made our total receipts for the event $542.

The Event Committee continues to meet and discuss other fundraiser events we can do. If you have suggestions, please, let us know.
